D. Fundraising

- CBC - New Bedford
 - 85% of youth at CBC do not pay to sail, so we need to fundraise
 - People are very supportive of sailing and getting people access to the water
 - CBC is 501.3C.

SM Sailing Annual Meeting
February 10, 2022

- Stone Horse YC
 - No fundraising. Hoping that dues and junior sailing school fees cover the expenses of the program
 - Not a 501.3c but looking into it
- Hyannis YC
 - No fundraising for pandemic
 - Pre-covid, we had a carnival, raffle ticket, etc. Funds raised supported the program. It was only open to club members, so you were raising funds from the membership.
 - Think of using the
- West Dennis YC
 - Up until Covid killed it, there was a youth Dance, where the public was invited and they would make good money
 - Pancake brunch, spaghetti dinner, etc. Get people to the club, easily things for the juniors to cook and creates good buy in
- Beverly YC
 - Junior auction every other year to raise funds for the program
- Orleans YC
 - Radtke Fund. Goal is to raise $150,000 to generate a scholarship fund for sailing lessons.
 - Raffle where you can win the “premier parking place” for a month
- General Discussion
 - Names on Bricks
 - Boat naming opportunities - support boats, etc.
 - Boat detailing
 - Do clubs do weddings and other outside functions
 - Some of the HS sailing programs have operated through a Booster club model that raised money for their program (Raffles, merchandise, etc.)
 - SM Sailing alumni dinner and silent auction
 - Yale Alumni Regatta raises fund for their program, something similar might work

With no further business, the call was adjourned at 2040
