For your Consideration: Cumming Cup

And away we go. I have been receiving text all day from a good friend and fellow school teacher. She is at the beach, toes in the sand, enjoying the wonderful summer weather. Last night, as I worked away in my office, I could hear the RC horn echoing in from the outer harbor. While the first day of summer is no officially until Monday, it has begun. The traditional start to the SM Sailing season is the Cumming Cup - SM Sailings longer running and oldest junior competition. This year's event will again be down at Pleasant Bay Community Boating on the Harwich, Chatham, and Orleans line. We are hoping that the July 1 date allows a few more clubs to participate this year. Registration will open up this weekend, so keep any eye on the SM Sailing website for more details.
