

420 Travel Team Coach

The Duxbury Bay Maritime School located in Duxbury, MA is looking for a Race Coach for it's 2012 Summer 420 Travel Team. The position starts on June 20th and goes until August 9th. There will be 32 total days of sailing (including practice and regattas) and the team will be traveling to all the major summer regattas in the area (Hyannis, 420 NA's, BBR, CJ Buckley, etc.). Most will take place in Duxbury, but some will take place the day before the event at the regatta location. A full work schedule with all practice and regatta days is already available. The coach's sole responsibility will be the 420 Race Team and will have time off between events and practices.

The coach will have a total of 6 boats for the summer. A combo of private boats and new 420s owned by DBMS. The sailors will be selected for this program based on skill and that alone. All sailors will have to commit to all regatta and practice dates. This will be a very serious program.

Candidate must be able to drive a 6 boat 420 trailer. Must be level 1 certified and have extensive coaching experience. Must be over 21 years of age.

Housing will be provided in one of the schools waterfront townhouses. This position pays very well.

Duxbury is located 30 minutes south of Boston, 1 hour away from Newport and 20 minutes from the Cape.

Please email chris@dbms.org if interested.

DBMS is also accepting applications for other Summer Race Coach Position and General Instructor positions. Housing will be provided as well. Email chris@dbms.org
