About Tim and Karen Fallon:

Their combined resumes include two Team Racing World Championships and a silver place finish at worlds along with 10 years of podium finishes at the US Team Racing Championships (Hinman Trophy), a UK Team Racing Championship (Wilson Trophy), winners of the Leo Telesmanick, and Hog Island series in Beetle Cats, and winners of the V15 Nationals. Tim, with his cousin Sarah Adams Martin won the Bemis Trophy and later sailed at Tufts University where he was a two-time All-American, and member of their national TR championship team. Karen sailed at Connecticut College where she, too, was an All-American.

About Mike O'Connor:

Harvard University head sailing coach and university director of sailing, Mike is a 2013 inductee into the ICSA Hall of Fame as the 2012-2013 Graham Hall Award winner. While at Harvard he has led the Crimson to two national team racing championships, a national coed championship, the women's national title, and five straight Fowle Trophies (top ICSA team at the North American Championships). Under his guidance 60 Harvard sailors have received All-American honors, and 4 have received the distinction of being the national sailor of the year.
