

This Month in SMSA: May 29, 2017

Happy Memorial Day.

Today marks a great day of remembrance for those who gave so much for our country. We would be remiss if we did not take a few moments to remember their sacrifice. Memorial Day Weekend is also marks the start of "pre-summer." For your consideration are three things to consider as you head into the summer.

1. Board Call Recap

The SM Sailing Board had their May Conference Call this week. Full minutes are posted on the SM Sailing website. Here are the highlights.

1. Reviewed training initiatives set out by the Board over the Winter
2. Previewed SM Sailing regattas (Cumming, Gill, Durant, & Prosser/Ginn)

2. TRAINING GRANT PROGRAM

In an effort to encourage more clubs to invest in training, SM Sailing is pleased to announce the Training Grant program. SM Sailing Member organizations can apply for reimbursement for funds that they have spent on training (Instructors, Race Management, Judges/Umpires, etc.) by filling out this application. Multiple request are allowed. The deadline to apply is July 15th. The SM Sailing board will review all applications and make decision by July 31, 2017.

The SM Sailing Training Grant Program link has been posted on the SM Sailing website.

3. SM Sailing Regattas

NOR for the SMSA Cumming Cup and SMSA Gill Trophy are posted on Regatta Network and registration for each opens on June 1st.
