For your Consideration: Two great pre-season events next weekend.

The Cumming Cup is next Friday. It is SM Sailing's oldest junior trophy dating back to 1930. This Junior Triple-handed event pushes many of today youth sailors out of their comfort zone, especially if the breeze is up. Registration for this event opened yesterday. To get your club involved in this provided boat regatta, click on the link above.

Like Team Racing? Want to get better at it, but don't have a three boat team? Sign Up for the Wild Harbor YC Team Race Clinic taught by Tim Fallon and Karen Renzulli Fallon. Their combined resumes include two Team Racing World Championships and a lot of other really impressive stuff. I guarantee you will learn something at this clinic. All you need is a boat and a person to sail with. Click on the link above for more information for more information.

MALLORY TROPHY - US Sailing's Adult Championship

The Mallory trophy use to be a ladder event until interest in both the Men's (Mallory) and Women's (Adams) deteriorated. Several years ago, US Sailing combined the events and opened it to resumes from all the regional Sailing Association. Every once in a while, SM Sailing is asked if a certain group can represent us at the event. The Board has been approaching that decision on a case by case basis. With the re-emergence of the Prosser/Ginn trophy this year, SM Sailing plans to use the results from that regatta to help determine suitability for the Mallory.

If you are interested in representing SM Sailing this year in the Mallory, please contact Rob Hurd by July 10th.
