Time to start thinking about Summer 2020. Next year is a leap year, and a "drop back year," which means that Labor Day late (Monday Sept 7, 2020) and there is an extra week of summer. It also means that all regattas drop back a week. The Peg Dates are set off of the Center of the Season:

- Hyannis Regatta, which starts the last Friday in July (7/31/20)
- Buzzards Bay Regatta, which starts the first Friday in August (8/7/202).

If regatta chairs and/or club managers can confirm their 2020 dates before labor Day (9/2/19) it will help with planning. SM Sailing is a collection of 45 clubs operating somewhat autonomously. The schedule is delicately balanced to work for the benefit of all. If your club wants to make changes in what they have traditionalist done, please consult with me for options before plowing ahead.
