For your Consideration:

It's been too long and for that I apologize. I was waiting for the Phase three to start and that was delayed.

1) Training: US Sailing will start running the two-day Level-1 in-person classes at Roger Williams University starting on July 25th. Those classes will cascade for the next three weeks. I know that SM Sailing is trying to set up some local courses too using facilities in Plymouth, Hyannis, Chatham, and Marion. So if your instructors are looking for the final piece to gain their certification, there should be some options. They should contact US Sailing for details.

2) The Mass EEA YOUTH and ADULT AMATEUR SPORTS ACTIVITIES – Phase III, Step 1 dropped on Monday (7/6). The good news is that sailboat racing has been approved. There are different rules for single handed boats, double handed boats, and more than three people boats (page 3) right now. And there is a difference between a "Competition" and a "Tournament" (Page 4). I read this as a Competition is a club race and a Tournament is a regatta, but best to check with your local Board of Health and Harbormaster before proceeding.

3) Finally, the Next SM Sailing Board call is Thursday July 15, 2020 at 8 pm. Agenda for that call is to get a sense of how everyone is doing and what, if anything, SM Sailing can do to help as your summer progressed. Our last ZOOM call was less attended than most of our Spring calls. It would be nice to get input and feedback from the whole district. I hope that each club can send a representative.
