For your Consideration:

This past weekend, two traditional Cape Cod classes held their annual regattas. Chatham YC host the Leo Telesmanick, which marked the 100th year of Beetlecat sailing. I had the pleasure of helping out on the Race Committee boat and witnessed the dominating performance by Tim Fallon (Wild Harbor) - five 1st and a second. Watching 70 beetlecats sail on Pleasant Bay was a special site.

At the other end of the district, Beverly YC Hosted the 93rd Annual H-Class Championship. As the owner of Hull #001, and a 7-time champion (although none of them recently), I was disappointed in myself for not getting my act together for this one, especially given the epic Buzzard's Bays Conditions on Saturday that the H-class love. Bill Barry (Beverly) captured his third championship holding off Terry Cromberg (Buzzards, 1990 championship, Rich McNeil (Beverly, 2015 Champion) and Josh Legg (Buzzards, 2014 & 2019 Champion).

In the fast paces world of C420s and Otis, skiffs and kites, sometime we forget about the classes the boats that made racing on Cape Cod, the South Coast, the South Shore, and the Islands so great
