4) Training: As with last year, Level-1 Instructors will need to take (and pass) a 10-day on-line course before completing a 2-day in-person course in order to be certified. On-line classes have already begun (I was teaching one last week) and are scheduled to run each week through July. It is highly recommended that those seeking certification for this summer register for an online class soon. We are working on setting up in-person courses for June . Presently, there are 5 posted.
