

Sailing Instructors

Tabor Summer Camp in Marion, MA, is seeking experienced sailing instructors who are excited to join our camp staff in creating an unforgettable summer by the sea for our campers ages 6-15. Sailing staff will be entrusted with the responsibility of the safety and instruction of participants in our sailing program from June 19 – August 4, 2023. We are looking for someone who is energetic, creative, and passionate about working with children in a camp setting. Experience sailing Optis, Sunfish, and Quest sailboats preferred.

Your responsibilities would include, but are not limited to:

- Providing for the physical and emotional safety of campers
- Assisting with the activity assigned to you in a safe and engaging way
- Having the proper certifications for your activity
- Taking attendance each period
- Keeping the campers safe, engaged, and active for the entire 60-minute period
- Meeting with the sailing director and sailing staff to coordinate their efforts during orientation week
