95 years of bringing sailors together

For your consideration

Gill Trophy is this week. Registration closes tonight at 6 pm. There are still a few spots left in this fun regatta. Click link below.

SMSA Team Racing Champs (Durant Trophy) was a great event. Fourteen squads battled it out over two day and 134 races. New Bedford YC retained the trophy winning all 20 of their races. Hyannis YC and Chatham YC tied with a record of 15-5, but Hyannis beat Chatham twice to secure second place. Nantucket Community Sailing (13-7) and the Buzzards YC (12-8) rounded out the top five. Also participating were Nantucket YC, Falmouth YC, West Dennis YC, Stone Horse YC, Stage Harbor YC, Cotuit Mosquito YC and Wianno YC. Both Hyannis and Buzzards fielded a second team to round out the fleet. Seventy races were conducted in thick fog in Lewis Bay on Wednesday. At times the windward marks were not visible from the starting line, but the sailors handled the conditions well. Thursday brought better visibility and good team racing winds (7- 10 kts) again.

The regatta was made possible by the excellent shore side contributions by the Hyannis YC staff, the great set of umpires who kept the sailors honest, and the coaches who kept the athletes focused. The sportsmanship and camaraderie between races was fun to watch and regardless of the final standings, a good time was had by all.

Awards for first through fourth place will be handed out on Tuesday August 20, 2024 at the SM Sailing Awards Night and Annual Meeting to be held at the Hyannis YC starting at 6 pm. All are welcome and dinner is free.
