For your Consideration:

Literally last century (in the 1900s), SM Sailing use to conduct ladder events for all three junior national championships (the Sears-Bemis-Smythe). In the case the double-handed regatta (Bemis) there were even a qualifying round before the Nash Trophy. Winners would go on a compete in the Area As for a chance to go to Nationals. In the early 2000s, US Sailing opened the Area events up to all and the SM Sailing ladder event fell by the wayside. But since we still owned some very nice trophies, the SM Sailing Board decided that that the Nash Trophy would be awarded to the top finishing SM Sailing boat at the Area A Bemis qualifiers, while Jones Trophy would go to the top single-handed sailor from a SM Sailing club at the Area As.

This year Beverly YC swept both awards. Patrick Shachoy & Luke Tougas were 5th in Newport back on June 26-27 and Drew Mastovsky won Marblehead Junior Race Week in the Radial class and qualified for the Smythe. Keeper trophies will be dropped off at Beverly later this month.

GRAND PRIX: The final Grand Prix regatta for both Optis and C420s is Beverly. Click on Green Grand Prix Box for more info.
